2. About this website

unfound.it is a static portfolio website. It has no user accounts, no login, and no forms that submit data to a server. It presents the studio's work across product design, interiors, art direction and collectible design.

3. What we collect

Cookie preference. When you accept or decline the cookie banner on this site, your choice is stored locally in your own browser (localStorage). It is not sent to or stored on our servers, and it only prevents the banner from reappearing on your next visit.

Hosting logs. Our hosting provider automatically records standard technical request data (IP address, browser type, page requested, timestamp) for security and operation, as almost every web host does. We do not access this data for tracking, profiling or marketing.

Email. The email address on this site opens your own email client. Any message you choose to send is handled by your email provider, not by this website.

We do not use analytics, advertising, or social media tracking scripts on this site.

4. Cookies

This site does not set third-party or tracking cookies. The only thing stored is the local browser preference described in section 3.

5. Your rights

If you are in the EU/EEA, you have the right under the GDPR to access, rectify, or request deletion of personal data we may hold about you, to restrict or object to its processing, and to data portability. Since this website does not collect personal data through its own systems, these rights mainly concern direct correspondence with us by email. To exercise them, write to studio@unfound.it.

6. Changes to this policy

This policy reflects how the site currently works. If that changes — for example, if analytics or a contact form are added — this document will be updated and the date above will change accordingly.
